If any of the Harry Potter books count it would be one of those. I've always found reading books to be boring, but those got (and kept) my interest for some reason. Otherwise I would say probably a book about a giant sea creature - I can't remember the title but I won a contest in 2nd grade when I recreated the cover of that book as a picture.

There are heaps of books with that style! I will try to explain it in the easiest way possible. Ok so omniscient basically means 'all-knowing'. If you have a third person POV, the story is being told by an all-knowing narrator. If you read a book like its a person telling you a story then you will see that the person is the narrator and all ...
