I've been making small bouquets of flowers to sell with the vintage bottles I've embellished for the craft fair next month. I've seen button bouquets done before, but putting old book page petals on them gives them a fun little twist (you'll appreciate that pun later, read on.). This project almost explains itself with the photos, it's really simple if you collect up all the right ...

On a separate piece of card stock images from the Autumn Wreath stamp set were white heat embossed. Then using the inks mentioned above, I ink blended the embossed images. Next, each image was cut using the coordinating die and adhered to the front of the card using liquid glue. The sentiment was also white heat embossed, inked using the same technique, cut using scissors and adhered to the ...
