The reason he gave is that the cross is a picture of suffering and punishment while resurrection is the victory of Jesus over death. I somehow feel wrong about that because I know that when I look to the cross, I see the love of God for me, humility of Jesus, and the forgiveness of my sins.

Is the Resurrection More Important Than the Cross? - Ask ...

The importance of the Cross is that it brings us to realize that we can never become followers of Jesus in the same way that we might follow a leader among men. The Lord has not inaugurated a political system, social order, or intellectual cult, wherein we bring our ideas into conformity with His, and thus become supporters of His cause.

-The Importance Of The Cross

Understanding the cross and resurrection as a single event is important here, for it is through the death and resurrection of Christ that death is swallowed up in victory (1 Cor. 15:54-55). 6. The cross vanquishes the devil. On the cross, Christ did not only conquer sin and death, but he conquered the spiritual forces of darkness.
