Eddie Vedder's new solo album is out. Eddie Vedder has said this solo outing began with no intention of the music going public, and there's no reason to doubt him. A solo ukulele record from the leader of Pearl Jam, one of the great alt-rock bands of the last quarter century, doesn't exactly brim with marketing potential.

Without You - Eddie Vedder - Cifra Club

There is no irony in the title of Eddie Vedder's first full-fledged solo album: these are indeed songs performed on a ukulele, an instrument uncommon but not unknown to rockers. George Harrison was a well-known advocate of the small four-string instrument, and Vedder's hero Pete Townshend once cut a lovely little gem called "Blue Red and Grey" on ukulele, a song that could easily slide ...
